

SNC SeaPort-e Team and Areas of Expertise

ASET Partners: ASET Partners Corporation is a Certified Small Business based in Alexandria, VA providing Systems Engineering, Architecture Support, Information Security Services, Software Development and Program Management Support services across the Federal Government.

Tech Ops: Tech Ops is a Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business that provides continuity programs, strategic planning, technical innovation, organizational design, force modernization, operations center concepts and technologies, business processes, and next-generation C4ISR integration.

SI-Tec: SI Tec Consulting is a certified HUBZone Management Consulting and Information Technology firm with experience providing services to highly secure DoD and Law Enforcement environments.

Operational Intelligence, LLC: O&I is a Veteran, Woman Owned Small Business specializing in providing timely intelligence solutions to the war fighter and Intelligence Community. O&I provides multi-discipline intelligence methodology and analytical skills across the intelligence spectrum with an emphasis on Information Operations, MASINT, HUMINT, Geospatial and SIGINT.

Onyx: Onyx Government Services, Inc. is a Service Disabled, Veteran Owned Small Business specializing in application development and data integration to provide decision-ready information to Command and Control (C2) and Decision Support Systems. Onyx has demonstrated expertise in information technology, database and COTS integration, and custom software development.

Logos Technologies, Inc: Logos Technologies is a Large Business delivering innovative technology and program solutions enabling critical mission operations for the Department of Defense, the Intelligence Community, and civilian agencies. Logos' capabilities span across critical disciplines; communications, synthetic and biofuels, persistent surveillance, software engineering, sensor processing, space systems, advanced information processing and systems integration.

The Merit Group: The Merit Group LLC is a minority, veteran and woman owned Small Disadvantaged Business that provides Engineering, Information Technology, Data Management and Strategy, Architecture, and LEAN/Six Sigma consultancy and implementation services. TMG maintains rapid response, independent and cleared resources with a broad range of analytical, technical and program management expertise.